Guild Meeting Speaker – FRIEDA ANDERSON

Lecture: Moving Forward With A New Tradition – Art Quilts

What does it take to become an Art Quilter and make your mark with fabric? Building from the traditional beginnings of quilting and making it your own takes inspiration and imagination. In this hour long PowerPoint presentation Frieda will share with you her inspiration and show you how she designs and makes her art quilts.

Along with all lectures Frieda will bring many of her quilts for display as well as her patterns and fabrics for sale.

Frieda made her first quilt when she was in high school and she has been designing and making original quilts ever since.

She finds each step of quilt making, from the beginning to the end, a real challenge. Most of her quilts are fused or have fusing in them. Her work is machine quilted and nature inspired.

She discovered hand dyeing fabric 30 years ago, and she now works almost exclusively with her own hand dyed cotton and silks that are used in her fused and pieced quilt creations. She loves the dye process, and particularly enjoys seeing the colors emerge from the wet fabric. Her hand dyed fabric and original patterns can be purchased on her website at http://www.friestyle.com. Readers can enjoy weekly updates and tips on her blog at http://www.friestyle.com.

Frieda is a BERNINA Ambassador working on the BERNINA 750Q domestic home sewing machine.

Workshop: Friday, September 8, 2017 – Sunset Pines

Sunset Pines brings to mind mountain vistas or woodland retreats. Created in rich fall colors this wall hanging will liven any setting. Raw - edge fusing makes quilting fun and fast. This woodland design is simple yet elegant and naturally suited for quiet reflection of the passing seasons. Using the collage method of fusing techniques and free form cut tree shapes from rich hand dyed fabric, the quilt speaks of cabins, lakes, and rivers. Each student will create their own unique forest in the woods art quilt. Finished size of quilt 30″ x 20″.

Happy September!!

I don't know about you, but I'm looking forward to some cooler temperatures soon! With the onset of fall, it's also the beginning of our new Guild fiscal year. By the time you're reading this, the board (both incoming and outgoing) and I will have met to discuss plans for the coming year. We'll be approving the budget for the year as well as discussing ways to cut costs and improve the bottom line. Changes are sometimes hard, but necessary. It is of utmost importance that we are fiscally responsible to ensure the longevity of the guild. As always, if you have any suggestions, I'm all ears!

Congratulations to the Yellow Rose recipients in August: Patrice Aldrich and Linda Adams. As always, I am honored to serve with such giving people that make our Guild successful.

See you in September (sounds like a song!)

According to our bylaws, annual membership dues are to be paid on or before the September meeting.

This year, the deadline is Sept. 7.

The forms have been arriving at a steady pace, but if you haven’t gotten your dues paid yet, don’t forget!

The form is available for printing in this newsletter or via www.quiltersguildofdallas.org

You can also join or renew online via Paypal

Last Call for Membership Renewals before the 2017-18 Directory is prepared for publication!
Frieda Anderson Workshop: Saturday, September 8, 2017 – Flooded with Color

Color is one of the reasons we love quilting, and achieving the abundance and variety of color is one reason we dye our own fabrics. The most dependable, light-fast and wash-fast dyes used by the industry are Procion MX Fiber Reactive Dyes, the same dyes used in this workshop. Participants will learn the techniques and dye formulas of 48 shades, introducing the flood of color that can be achieved with this easy dyeing method.

Guild Meeting Speaker – ALISA BANKS
Lecture: An Artist Inspired by Quilts

Fabric, paper and books. Oh my! Join Alisa as she shows and shares stories about her mixed media work inspired by quilts.

At an early age, Alisa began drawing and sewing. Her creative route took several detours, but a transformative experience occurred during her final semester in grad school, when she happened upon a book of quilts. From then on, quilts and quilting have inspired much of her art.

Alisa received her BS from Oklahoma State University and her MFA from Texas Woman’s University. Her work centers on issues concerning identity and she often incorporates fibers and found materials that in form reference traditional crafts.

Alisa’s work has been exhibited in venues in the U.S., Canada, England, and Laos, and is housed in several private and public collections, including the U.S. Library of Congress, the Smithsonian Museum, and the New York Public Library. She lives in Dallas, TX.

Show committee members, our September meeting will be held Tuesday, September 19, 2017 at 7:00 p.m. at the Best Little Retreat Center in Texas at Belt Line and Coit Roads in Dallas. Please let Richard or me know if you have any questions. Everyone is welcome at the show committee meetings.

The entries information will be available in September, and Richard and I want to encourage everyone to enter a quilt or quilts in the show (you can enter up to four.) This is our guild show, so let’s represent. The purpose of entering a show isn’t to win ribbons or prize money, but it's to share our work and our love for quilts. Our families and friends are so happy to come see our quilts hanging in the beautiful venue whether they win prizes or not, and really, it's just a thrill to see your own quilts hanging in the show. Please consider entering your quilts! Entries are due no later than the date of the regular guild meeting in January, but you can send them in whenever you have them ready.

Frances

Can you believe it is September???

We hope you have submitted the information for your favorite charity and hopefully yours will be the lucky one that is chosen. IF YOU HAVE NOT DONE SO, we will give you one more month to give your charity's info to us!!! The information we need from the charity may be found on our website under the show tab and then at the top of the show page, hit the tab Mini Auction.

If you have problem or questions, please feel free to contact Donna King at 214-763-2817.

During these hot summer months, why not make a mini or two for the auction. They are not big and heavy which is a perfect quilt to make during summer.

Again, thanks for all the participation in our Miniature Quilt Auction.

Many of you know that Mary Jane Burton has sold her house here and moved to Las Vegas to be nearer her daughter and grandchildren. She has been my right-hand girl for the past year and I will miss her assistance and knowledge. We all wish her the best in her new adventure. Please let me know if you would like to join the Library team.

We are grateful to all the members who make use of the library; however, books are not being turned in. As a reminder, books are loaned for one month, and the fine is $1/book/month. Those of you who have outstanding books should expect a phone call and email from me. In the interest of sharing knowledge, techniques, skills, patterns, and ideas it is imperative that books are returned on time.

Give me a call or email me if you have books or other materials to donate. We will be accepting books quarterly instead of monthly.

If you have comments or questions you can reach me at 214-642-0136 or nancy.s.netherland@gmail.com.
“The Latest Buzz ... From The Beehive”

Now is the time for all good guild members to come to the aid of their guild's board!

Maybe you have been waiting for a personal invitation. Consider this your engraved invite to help on several levels!

Your library needs two more assistants to cover the guild meetings with check-outs and checking in the returned materials. Remember the library at your elementary school? Not that much different! (really kinda Mayberry style) Also, the membership area could use another hand with “door duties.” See me or Florence Beaird for more information.

And another thing!! How about helping out with our monthly workshops from our speakers? I know that the Friday and Saturday workshops that follow our meeting are sometimes very busy with the speaker and her materials. Who couldn't lend a hand with the papers and light switches. Doesn’t sound that hard does it? Call Sue Holland and Pat Galvin and see what they say!

The older I get, the more I realize that karma is real. You get what you give. Good goes out ... good comes back. And the reverse, likewise. Don’t believe me. Try it and see!

Don’t forget to keep looking for the Hidden Word! Ask Lynn Wilson if she is enjoying the darling basket she won at the August meeting for telling me the “word” and winning the door prize. (For those of you who are now reading this newsletter with new eyes, there is a “word” that has no business being in this publication. Your job, if you choose, is to find that “word,” WRITE IT DOWN ON SOMETHING, and tell me at the next meeting. I will give you a special ticket for a special drawing at the end of the meeting.)

Thanks!

First of all a LONG overdue THANK YOU to those that help make this newsletter possible: those writing the articles whose names are listed, and the “invisible” proof-readers: Carol Dickschat, Marcia Hampton, Judy Kriehn, Terry Reese, and Marcia Wood!! The deadline for articles for our next newsletter (October) is September 11, 2017, the Monday after the guild meeting. Please e-mail your articles to me at newsletter@quiltersguildofdallas.org. Thank you!

Quilters' Guild of Dallas and DAFA member Daphne Huffman has again been honored for her inspiring art quilting: "Swamp Critters" is one of 40 quilts juried into a special exhibit "Made in Texas" at the Texas Museum of Quilts in LaGrange, TX October 4 - December 22, 2017. The exhibit will then travel from 2018 to 2020 to various venues including the International Quilt Market and the International Quilt Festival in Houston. Kudos to the prolific Daphne, whose donation quilts have raised thousands of dollars in the past few years!

The August 28, 2017 DAFA meeting will feature former DAFA president Sherry Searcy, well known for her expert dyeing and collage techniques, who will speak about Using Your Art to Connect to Your Community. Triceratops. Sherry is a member of the Wichita Falls Art Association. She will also teach a mini workshop at 5:30 p.m. on Fiber Collage, which has a $5.00 kit fee.

The September 25, 2017 DAFA meeting will be presented by Lynne Brotman on the topic of shibori and indigo dyeing techniques. Visit her website www.lynnebrotmanfiberart.com to see her art, mixed media work, and artfully dyed garments.

For further details, location, and times, please visit the website www.dallasfiberartists.org and pick up a new postcard at the membership table.

All are welcome to attend as guests.

Jackie Reis Quilt Enters Texas Tech Museum Collection

The estate of Jackie Reis recently donated her Balls and Bows quilt to the Clothing and Textiles Collection at the Museum of Texas Tech University. This quilt was made using her first Accu-Pattern quilt block set. Jackie taught quilting to many in West Texas and New Mexico and regularly entered the Dallas Quilt Celebration.

Although basically self taught, Jackie attended workshops with Catherine Anthony, Libby Lehman, Helen Squire, Bernice Enyeart, Jean Ray Laury, and others. Her enthusiasm and interest paralleled the quilting resurgence of the seventies. While trying to make up a quilt from a book she discovered that the patterns were not accurate so she decided she needed to do her own drafting. Jackie Reis had an innate ability with geometry. Working with her husband, who was a mechanical engineer and taught her how to draft patterns on the computer, Jackie created the Accu-Pattern company out of her Lubbock home. Guild members may have these patterns in their stash. Ten different pattern sets were produced. Along with the quilt the children also donated a complete run of the patterns and surviving business files.

Notes from a Curator

During her life, Jackie was gracious in giving quilt related materials to the Museum. Her most significant donation was the Sunburst Quilt created by Sally Beaird Lewellin circa 1885 in Brown County [in west central Texas], which she purchased from the family.

Sunburst Quilt created by Sally Beaird Lewellin, pictured on right, circa 1885 in Brown County, Texas. Gift of Jacquelyn (Jackie) K. Reis (Mrs. Tony), TTU-H2015-011-001.

If this quilt looks familiar it is because another made by Sally Beaird Lewellin is on the cover of the book, Lone Stars, A Legacy of Texas Quilts, 1836-1936, the quilt documentation conducted by Karoline Patterson Bresenhan and Nancy O'Bryant Puentes. A paper on this pattern is anticipated at the upcoming American Quilt Study Group Seminar in October. Jackie's donation remains the only one of Sally Beaird Lewellin's quilts to be in a public museum available for all to study and see.

As evidenced by her pattern company, Jackie enjoyed creating block patterns. Her children recall that after seeing the Texas shaped sidewalk-paving bricks outside a quilt shop in Lewisville, Texas she went home and worked for ten hours until she successfully drafted Texas Tessellations so it could be pieced without using inset

Mrs. Reis was also an avid student of quilt history and attended inductions at the Quilters Hall of Fame in Marion, Indiana where she met several of the Honorees. The Flower Basket Petit quilt made by Grace Snyder based on a china pattern enchanted her. Jackie made a quilt top that is a small size version of Grace’s quilt and donated it along with pieces of the china on which it was based. The family also donated books from her quilt history research collection to the Clothing and Textiles Research Library of the Museum.

Reis (Mrs. Tony), TTU-H 2015-011-002.

To have a quilt made by the founder of a Texas quilt pattern company from patterns she drafted and sold is a wonderful addition to the Museum’s Collection. Choosing which of her many quilts with which to honor Jackie’s memory at the museum was surely a challenge for her children.

Lesson of the Month: Fabric weaving to make 3D tumbling blocks by Monica Hendewer.

President Cindy Matthews called the meeting to order at 7:15 p.m. She recognized new attendees by having them to stand. Also, the nametags are on the back table if you ordered one.

Cindy then asked those in attendance to turn to their neighbor and answer, “Have you started on your Christmas quilt gifts yet?”

The Quilter’s Guild of Arlington was present with their raffle quilt “Postcards from Home.” Raffle tickets were available for purchase.

Rhonda Anderson (Covers for Kids): Thank you to everyone who brought in quilts tonight. Keep working on quilts. Also, there still are Covers for Kids challenge packets available. They are $5.00, which will be returned to you when you turn in your quilt. The completed quilts are due at the October meeting. Also, the Dallas Children’s Advocacy Center is in need of donations of school supplies. They can be turned in to Rhonda.

Donna Reed (Irving Quilt Guild): Donna has tickets to the Sewing Expo, which will be August 24-26, 2017. Tickets are $15.00 at the door but $10.00 at tonight’s meeting.

Frances Hafer (6th VP Show): The Show Committee meeting is 7:00 p.m., Tuesday, August 15, 2017 at the Best Little Retreat Center in Texas (Coit and Belt Line Roads, Dallas). If you are curious about the Show Committee, please come! It does not obligate you to being on the committee. Also, the point of the show is to share our love of quilting, so please enter your quilt and share with us!

Linda Newman (Block Contest): This year’s theme for the block contest is “Tropical Rain Forest.” There will be packets starting next month. Packets are $10.00, which will be refunded to you when you turn in your completed block.

Patty Edwards (5th VP Finance; Quilt Show Mini Auction): Patty has letters from the 2017 show and from prior shows. Please see her if you have made a mini but have not received your letter; we would rather not mail them. We are still looking for a beneficiary for this year’s auction. We have a couple of applications but would like to see more.

Mary Howard (7th VP Education): The guild offers a mini-scholarship through the Helena Hibbs Scholarship Fund. The mini-scholarship is for tuition for a class or workshop up to $100.00. In return, you must do a lesson of the month, not necessarily related to the class or workshop you took. If interested, please see Mary. Also, if you have a lesson of the month you would like to present, we have openings. Please see Mary Howard or Patty Edwards.

Sherrie Tootle (3rd VP Programs/Workshops) recapped the past year and all the wonderful things we have learned. There are still spots left in this Friday's and Saturday's workshops.

Donna Petrick (TAQG): The form to present at the November TAQG meeting on Programs is available online.

Judy Kriehn (Membership): Membership is due to be renewed by the end of the September meeting to be included in the 2017-2018 directory.

Bring and Brag: Eleven people shared thirteen quilts

Cindy Matthews presented Yellow Rose Awards to Pat Aldrich and Linda Adams for their service to the Guild.

Break

Sherrie Tootle introduced our speaker, Gyleen Fitzgerald. Gyleen shared with us quilts tracing her journey as a quilter from traditional through contemporary to modern.

There were fourteen visitors, one new member, and a total of 134 in attendance.

Door prizes were donated by Old Craft Store, Quilt Country, Plano Sewing Center, and gifts from members. Ten door prizes were given out.

Cindy adjourned the meeting at 8:56 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Pat Aldrich
2016-2017 Guild Secretary
