Program:
Gwen Marston

Ideas and Inspirations: Abstract Quilts in Solids

What to bring to meeting:

- Membership Card
- Your own bottled water (none will be provided)

For those who weren't able to attend the March Guild meeting, you missed some beautiful quilts. Jane's "ladies" along with her amazing tree quilts and other designs in her trunk show, certainly got the imagination of many attendees racing. Her jacket was also stunning. Something for all to consider as inspiration for an "apparel" entry in next year's quilt show.

We are having a really great response to Gwen Marston who will be coming to us in April from Beaver Island, Michigan. A professional quilt artist, author and teacher, she has taught quilting nationally and internationally for more than 30 years. The author of 24 books, she has also been a regular contributing columnist for Lady's Circle Patchwork Quilts as well as many other magazines.

Gwen has been the featured quilt artist in 21 solo exhibits and her work has been shown in many group exhibitions throughout the world.

Her lecture will be a trunk show illustrating quilts from her book "Ideas and Inspirations: Abstract Quilts in Solids." She will discuss her work in solids and point out some of the great characteristics inherent in these beautiful fabrics. Although originally inspired by Amish quilts, Gwen's are very Liberated.

At this time, her Saturday workshop is full with a waiting list started, and a few (very few) slots remain for her Friday workshop, "Liberated Baskets."

Upcoming Programs:

In May, we will be treated to the creativity of Tom Russell from Katy, TX. Tom is an award-winning quilter who only started his quilting journey in 2000. He has been featured on Alex Anderson's "Simply Quilts" and was selected by Alex to participate in one of her quilt challenges. Tom has designed patterns for HGTV and appeared on Quilt Central on PBS. His work has also found its way into Quilter's Newsletter Magazine, The Quilter and Quilting Arts.

Tom will present a lecture on his journey into quilting and do a one-day workshop Friday, May 6th called "Scrapbag Bouquet."

In June, prepare to be dazzled by Marti Michell, creator of the "Perfect Patchwork Templates" and her "From Marti Michell" line of acrylic templates and specialty rulers for rotary cutting. If you have ever needed a tool to make that challenging design, Marti has made the perfect set to help you. She is the recipient of the 2004 "Silver Star Honoree" lifetime achievement award at Houston International Quilt Festival for being a pioneer of the current quilt revival.

Alternate Location for April 7th Meeting!

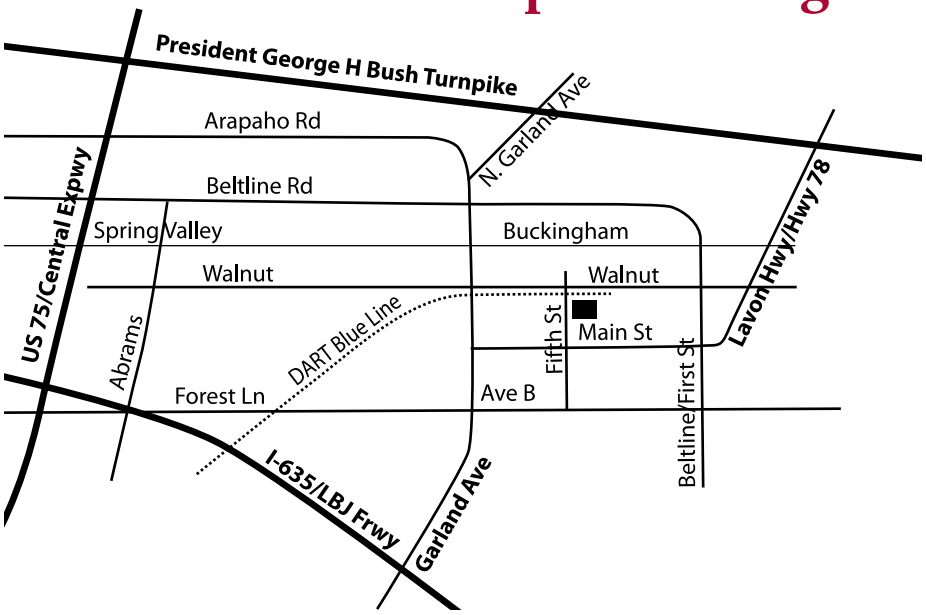
Her lecture will be "Tools, Top Tips and Secrets". Friday's workshop is a must for anyone who has a UFO or quilt top in progress needing to be quilted as it is "Quilt as you Sew". Saturday she will walk us through "Hexagons, American Style". No English Paper Piecing here.

April Meeting in Alternate Location!



Instead of holding the April 7th meeting at Shearith Israel, we will be meeting at:

The Atrium

Granville Performing Arts Center
300 North Fifth Street
Garland, Texas

The Performing Arts Center is located just south of the intersection of Fifth Street and Walnut. This is also the end of the DART Rail Blue line, should you choose to use that method of transportation.

Thank You Show Volunteers!

Valerie Salter, Volunteer Coordinator

I would sincerely like to thank all the members and non-members who volunteered for the 2011 Quilt Celebration. Without your generous donation of TIME, we could not have put on such a fabulous show! Every one of you was so willing to help wherever you were needed, and that flexibility made my job so much easier. I cannot thank you all enough.

Just a few stats to let you know how many hours it takes to put on the Quilt Show and how many volunteers it takes. There were 203 individual member volunteers (counting the Show Committee) with a total of 2663.75 hours reported at the show. These hours do not count the many hours that the Show Committee put in prior to the show. I have not yet had time to count the non-member volunteers or their contributed hours yet, but trust me – these special people are equally important to making our show successful.

I must give special "snaps" to "The Keller Crew" (Marte and Ed.) This dynamic duo are the members who clocked the most hours at the show this year. Thank you, thank you, thank you!!

If you didn't get a chance to volunteer this year, I hope that you will consider it for next year. It is fun and a great way to get to know fellow members. I hope to see you all for Quilt Celebration 2012.

And the Winner Is....

A special young quilter was chosen to draw the winning raffle ticket for the 2011 Raffle Quilt, Stars in My Garden.

The winner is:

Marlene Cummings

who was visiting from Maine!

....And one of our Younger Entrants

Guild Member Becky Jackson (left) with her granddaughter Sarah Jackson (right). The quilt shown is Sarah's first quilt show entry, Sarah's Houses.

Becky reports that as she was pinning Sarah's "I'm a winner" ribbon on, several show visitors stopped to tell her how much they liked her quilt. Then, the proprietor of the vendor booth across the aisle came over to tell her how much he and his wife were enjoying looking at the quilt from their booth.

Don't Forget!

We will NOT be meeting in our usual location in April.

Please head to downtown Garland instead.

We'll be meeting at:

The Atrium at the Granville Arts Center

The building is right next to the DART Rail Blue Line Station, located at Walnut and 5th Street.

Nominating Committee

Valerie Hubbard, Chairman

The Quilt Show is over and you saw how much fun the volunteers were having. Did you know that the same thing goes for being on the Guild Board? The more involved in the Guild you are, the more fun you have! This is a proven fact. So it is time for you to get in there and REALLY have some fun.

The Nominating Committee is starting their quest for filling board positions for 2011-2012. Think about how much fun the Board members are currently having and how you would like to be part of it. Talk to one of the Nominating Committee members (listed below) about what elected positions will be available, what the various positions entail, and how your interests and skills can become a valued asset to the Guild!

April Library Theme:

State Quilts

Marte Keller and Martha Smith, Guild Librarians

First of all:

Since we will be at a different location for the April meeting, we won't have a library table available. All of you with books checked out get an extra month to enjoy them. We'll be back in our usual spot in May!

Second of all:

The history of our country is tied up in the many stories from different states. As we all know, quilting has become a medium to tell some of these stories. This month we're featuring quilts from our 50 states.

Check out a complete list of quilts and quilt makers from individual states at the Guild's website: http://www.quiltersguildofdallas.org and then click on Events & Links. Or stop by the Library table before the May meeting and we'll have a list of these books.

Happy Reading!

What a fantastic show! Weren't the quilts spectacular?

I am always in awe of the beautiful quilts our members and friends create, and I was not disappointed this year. What talent you all have. Congratulations to those of you that received ribbons.

Speaking of ribbons, what an honor to receive the "Pride of Dallas" choice, and the year I was show chair too. Wow, how special is that?

There are many talents in this Guild, and not just in quilting. What a wonderful Show committee to work with. I can't express the extent of appreciation I have for each of you and the outstanding job you all did. Thank you, members of the show committee for your dedication, and for making my job much easier than I expected.

A special thanks to Terry Reese, my co-chair, for assisting in every way possible, keeping my head straight everytime I got interrupted by a minor emergency.

Thanks to ALL VOLUNTEERS who worked in whatever "jobs" you did to make this show a success. It truly does take all of us.

Raffle quilt committee, you should be proud. I know I am. The raffle quilt was very popular. We even had several out of state requests to purchase tickets from persons that either received the email notification, or saw the quilt on our website.

Thanks too, to the great vendors and the vast array of things to tempt us with. We thank you for your support, especially of our volunteers. Sponsors, we thank you for your support as well.

We received numerous compliments from vendors regarding how smooth the show runs, how organized we are, etc. etc. There were numerous compliments from the public too.

Terry, I'm looking forward to "In Full Bloom" - Quilt Celebration 2012.

And now, some comments from my committee members:

- Four entries did not show up on turn-in day. Sadly, this means that those three entrants will not be permitted to enter the 2012 show.
- Despite the no-shows, Joe Ellen Ticknor and all of her set-up volunteers managed to disguise the "holes" in the judged show display, ensuring a good experience for visitors.
- One of our judges, Anita Shackleford, had to cancel at the last minute, due to illness in her family, but Marilyn Hardy was able to fill in.
- Twenty-one finished blocks were turned in for the "Stargazing" Block Contest. 1st place - Alisa Hake, 2nd place - Theri Dufour, 3rd place - Marie Zaczkowski, and four Honorable Mentions - Marcia Wood, Judy Kriehn, Dori Nanry, and Cleola Green. Block Contest Chairman Marcia Hampton expresses her thanks to all the members that participated.
- Covers for Kids chairman, Rhonda Anderson thanks all of the volunteers who did "double-duty" by working on Covers for Kids projects while doing another volunteer job at the show! We cut kits, ironed fabric, bound 41 quilts (and even took more home to finish that weren't quite done when volunteer shifts ended), and now have a basket full of blocks made at the Fabric Affair/Pfaff booth. The APQS and Gammill longarm booths both quilted a bunch of tops during the weekend, These will be available for members to take home for binding at the April meeting. Lastly, special thanks go to Boneta Porter and Peggy Lee for keeping the "Covers for Kids workshop" going all three days of the show!

See Show Recap, page 12

- Rhonda Anderson also sends a HUGE thank you to her HUGE crew of volunteers helping her get everything into place - both for Covers for Kids and for Decorations - before the Preview Party. Extra special thanks go to Ed and Marte Keller, who were her godsend. They helped with every aspect before, during and after the show to make sure that help was always available with whatever needed to be done, from hanging keeper quilts, to friendship group banners, to putting out all of the plants AND watering them during the show.
- Almost all of the ferns and geranium plants were purchased by Guild members and vendors, which helps keep our decorating budget low. Undoubtedly, all the plant buyers will enjoy their purchases as spring bursts into bloom. Since the RED flowers were so popular, next year we will order only RED! Be sure to sign up early to purchase the plants. A special thank you to Valerie Salter and Donna Petrick for being "personal secretaries," helping ensure that the list of buyers was kept up-to-date. We are blessed to have such great volunteers in our Guild!
- Joan Wilson sends a HUGE THANK YOU to all the wonderful volunteers at the Appraisal area. Going into the show, only fourteen volunteers had signed up to help in this area, but over 50 individuals helped her manage the people bringing items for appraisals. They were definitely busy!
- Shirley Lam sends a special thank you to the volunteers who worked at the Raffle Quilt table during the show. Says Shirley, "You rock!!" These folks did a wonderful job and their hard work helping promote the Raffle Quilt was definitely appreciated!
- The Security team sends a big "Thank you so much" to all of the Secret Shoppers! You were a huge help and we hope you had fun!
- Tammie Bivens, Sponsorships, extends a special "Thanks for all our wonderful Sponsors this year." We would love to add new businesses to the list next year!
- Greeters make the first impression on our show guests. Cleola Green, Greeter Chairman, would like to say a big Thank You to all the members and volunteers who came early and helped greet our guests to the show. You were all wonderful!

Come Sew With Us!

Covers for Kids Workshops

Saturday, March 26th Saturday, April 16th Saturday, May 28

If you would like to join the fun at any or all of the workshops listed above, contact Covers for Kids Chairman, Rhonda Anderson
via email at abusyquilter@tx.rr.com and her home phone # is 972-680-3582.
Workshops are held at the Hancock's store at the southeast corner of Hwy 78 (Lavon Drive) and Naaman School Road in Garland near Firewheel Town Center.

The Hancock's classroom is SMALL. Hence the RSVP Requirement!

Mini-Auction

Mary Lord and Bonnie McElearney Co-Chairs

WOW!!!

Thank You for making another miniature quilt auction a huge success! The auction was so successful because of the huge support we received from members who were willing to make a mini, bid on minis, buy minis, and/or volunteer before, during and after the show. You all came through even with this year's snowy weather and meeting challenges.

Our Support began in September...

with Shelley Chappell, shop owner of Quilters Connection. Shelley and her staff graciously hosted the annual miniature quilt workshop. Volunteers Donna King, Glynnis Wood, Maxyne Strickland and Sharon Renick instructed and facilitated the workshop, while the workshop participants made and donated their cute creations to the mini auction. The generosity of all of these people got us off to a strong start.

Support continued...

from Judy Kriehn, our newsletter wizard, who always makes what we write so much better; Carol Dickschat, our show chair, who encouraged us to try the online bidding; Lloyd and Mary Cooper, our auctioneers, who put in endless hours prior to the show, created a magnificent website, and made producing the auction booklet so much easier this year.

…And it kept going with the member volunteers, who worked tirelessly on Friday and Saturday. They convinced viewers to vote for their favorite mini for the "Viewer's Choice" award, acted as quilt angels-allowing people to see the backs of individual donations, invited everyone to participate in the auction on Saturday, registered bidders, advised the viewers to look for the online portion of the auction again next year, took the minis down and prepared them for their "walk", serving as "Vanna Whites" of the mini-auction world - smiling big while walking the minis, enticing bidders to continue bidding on favorites, the "receivers" who organized the purchased minis so they could easily be found and released to the buyers, and the cashiers who accepted payment for the minis when the auction closed. You managed to keep everyone happy and energy level up throughout the afternoon.

This year we raised over $8000. Family Outreach Dallas and the MOM program will benefit greatly from the runds raised.

In the words of Bartles & Jaymes, thanks for your support!!!

Ways and Means – Post Show Report

Glenda McCune
VP – Ways & Means

Have you ever wondered what "Ways & Means" really means? I certainly had no idea when I agreed to take the position, so I'll take a moment to clarify this term. Essentially, the Ways and Means committee is responsible for finding "ways and means" (other than basic dues) of raising money to fund the many projects that the Guild plans to undertake. Originally, the Show Committee was part of Ways & Means (as it is a huge factor), but as you can imagine, the scope of that committee's work grew far beyond the simple task of raising money.

In any case, my loyal committee chairs are all part of the show committee process. Because of their highly visible contribution to the show, I would like to ask all members of the Guild to join me in a round of applause for the wonderful work done by my team before and during the 2011 Dallas Quilt Celebration. Our success is guaranteed with the efforts of members like you.

Mini Auction

Mary Lord and Bonnie McElearney again led the mini auction to outstanding success. This year the recipient organization, Family Outreach of Dallas' Mentoring our Mothers program, will benefit from the efforts of these leaders and the efforts of all Guild members who contributed mini quilts to the auction. In addition, I would like to express my gratitude to our photographer, Mel Hauer, and to auctioneers and their new charity bidding website.

Raffle Quilt

To Nina Hall and her Raffle Quilt team: LaDonna Holtsclaw, Cleola Green, Janice Bentley, Ellen Lab, Louise Bloom, and Shirley Lam -- Thank you again. I am so proud to have such a wonderful group of quilters put in so much time and effort for our annual Raffle Quilt. This year's quilt, Stars in My Garden, is beautiful and raised much needed funds for our operations.

Guild Store

Janet and Caitlin Kriv, again you were there when we needed you. Each year, your outstanding work brings us the best in quilt show pins, tee-shirts, and tote bags. We always look forward to your great merchandise and your cheerful and enthusiastic merchandising.

Sunshine & Shadows

Sunshine & Shadows can be sent to:
Shelley Ferguson at shelley.ferguson@att.net or 214-300-9464.

Sunshine:

- Joan Wilson's quilt "Fireworks in the Midnight Sky" has been juried into the AQS Paducah show. It was also on display at our Dallas show. Congratulations Joan!

Shadows:

- In December, Frances Halvorson's mother passed away.
- In January, Rhea Terry's daughter, Debbie Terry, passed away.
- Tana Van Hamme, guild member and a member of the Goin' to Pieces group, suffered a stroke in February. She is in rehab now and making progress in her recovery.

Updates on previous Shadows:

- Iva Grant's husband Richard and Peggy Gray are both back at their respective homes and doing well.
