

Minutes from Quilters Guild of Dallas Meeting May 5, 2022

Held via Zoom and in person. The meeting opened at 6:30 p.m. for social time. Shelly Goodwyn, President, called the meeting to order at approximately 7:00 p.m.

Shelly Goodwyn presented the Silver Thimble Award to Melanie Reimann. Shelly then introduced the slate of incoming Board members.

Committee Reports:

Peggy Cord, 1st Vice President – Community Service, reported that last month we donated 13 quilts to the Ronald McDonald House, 14 quilts to the Dallas Children's Advocacy, and 10 quilts to the Vogel Alcove. There are no further drop-off/pickups at Sew Let's Quilt It; moving forward this will continue at the General Meetings. The next Covers for Kids Challenge fabric is here, either cows or chickens. It is $5 for the packet of fabric that will be returned when you complete and turn in your quilt. There are prizes for the winners and the entries will be displayed at the Show. Various books and magazines will be sold at General meetings to help offset the cost of batting for the CFK quilts.

Nancy Netherland, 3rd Vice President – Programs and Workshops, announced upcoming speakers and workshops. Please note the date and time change for the July meeting and workshop with Jenny Haynes.

Ann Cardon made an announcement about fundraising to present Laurene Sinema quilts at various quilt shows.

Bonnie Ambrose announced the Quilt Show Wrap-up meeting potluck is Tuesday, May 10, 2022 at the Best Little Retreat Center at 6:30 p.m.

Donna Petrick announced the Plano Guild is selling raffle tickets for their Show and instead of a quilt, the raffle is for a collection of bags. Consider entering the Plano show, the forms are online.

Linda Bartley, 2nd VP – Membership, announced the 2nd Spring Stash Super Swap will be May 21, 2022 from 10:30 – 12:30 a.m. at the new Dallas Public Library Forest Green Branch. Details will be on the members' only Facebook page, emails, and a flyer. Anything left over will be donated to a charity. If you would like to make donation it will go towards the cost to rent the space and to Community Service.

Debbie Ray, the current president of Creative Quilters Guild of Ellis County, announced they are selling raffle tickets, which can also be purchased online. The drawing will be July 16, 2022 at their Quilt Show.

Marcia Wood, 7th Vice President – Education, reiterated the date and time change for the July meeting and showed some of the pieces she's made from Jenny Hayes' workshops she has taken online before, highlighting the Drunkard's Path block and curved piecing.

Shelly invited members forward for Bring and Brag. Members introduced their guests/visitors.

Nancy Netherland, 3rd Vice President – Programs and Workshops, introduced the speaker Michele Markey who discussed her different techniques and materials for painting on fabric.

Door prizes were announced and the meeting was adjourned at 8:57 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Christina Vilmar
Guild Secretary